 A Mission with a Message
 Acts 3:12-20, 24-26

The Point: We can have a relationship with God through Christ alone.
The Bible Meets Life: On a train in the bowels of the busiest airport in the world, I noticed an elderly woman trying frantically to communicate with the passengers around her. She was showing her boarding pass to anyone who would look, but they were unable to understand her Spanish and she, their English.
 Unfortunately, most of what little Spanish I once knew I've long since forgotten. But I know a lot about airports, so I intervened. The Atlanta airport has 192 gates spread across 7 concourses in 2 terminals. That's 192 opportunities to fly somewhere, but only one flight would take her from Lima to Louisville. My immediate challenge was how to convince her not to get off at any of the next three train stops, then hope she would trust me enough to get off at the fourth one and follow along with me to Gate B11!

Our world abounds with religions and spokespeople telling us their version of how to know God and how to get where everyone wants to go—heaven. But there is only one way to know God and only one way to heaven. Just as only one gate would take that lost traveler from Atlanta to Louisville, the death and resurrection of Christ alone opened the way for us to come to God. Having come to see the truth about Christ and the gospel, Peter and John wanted others to know the truth of salvation through Christ alone.

Live It Out: Reflect: Have you depended upon the faith commitments of your family when it comes to your identity as a Christian? If so, this study of God's Word has made it clear that isn't going to work. Repent of your sins and place your faith in Jesus. Challenge. Who in your life might be assuming that the reputation of their family is enough for them to be a Christian? Commit to sharing with them about their need for personal faith and repentance.
