

Easter Sunday & Communion

Easter is next Sunday!

As we prepare for communion on Easter Sunday, let us examine our hearts, seek reconciliation, and reflect on Jesus' sacrifice, remembering the new covenant in His blood and body.

God is Faithful

Deuteronomy 7:6-16

The Point: God is faithful to His people and His promises.

The Bible Meets Life: Semper Fi. Since 1883, it's been the official motto of the United States Marine Corps. It means "always faithful." As far as the Marines are concerned, there is no such thing as a former Marine. The ethos of Semper Fi is expected in every aspect of their personal and professional lives. Once a Marine, always a Marine. And pity the non-Marine who dares to sport a Semper Fi tattoo! "Always faithful" is a noble aspiration. But it's impossible for any human being to always be faithful in every single area of his or her life. For example, it may surprise you that divorce rates among Marines are among the highest of any branch of military.

We've all failed to keep a vow, pledge, or commitment. There's only one Being in the universe and through all recorded history who has never broken a promise. Never violated a covenant. Never left a commitment unfulfilled. His name is Yahweh, and He alone is always faithful.

Oorah.

Live It Out: Keep God's Commands. Commit to focusing on God's commands in your devotional time this week. Meditate on passages such as the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20) and the Beatitudes (Matthew 5). Destroy God's enemies. Identify media choices, habits, hobbies, or relationships that may be taking you off God's path of obedience and take steps to eliminate them from your life. Tear down idols. Keep God first in your life by identifying any idol, anything in your life you have put before Him.
