Momentum Tour

Youth, meet at OBC at 4:15 PM today.

We will venture over to Euto Baptist for the event that starts at 5 PM.

Parents, we should be back to OBC around 7:30-7:45 PM.

Momentum is a 3 meeting event for students to learn how to share their faith and make a difference in their communities.

1. How to pray your friends to Christ.

- 2. Share Jesus without fear.
- 3. Momentum tour rally.

Church, please pray for our youth and the youth groups attending these events. Pray that they will implement the things they learn from the Momentum tour throughout the upcoming school year!

A Cause for Tea

A Cause for Tea exists to globally empower women and children, demonstrating God’s love one teacup at a time. We are passionate about providing elegant sensory and cultural experiences to our local community, and this enables us to partner and serve alongside various local and global organizations to accomplish our goal of spreading God’s love to the world around us.

Abigail: A Woman of Wisdom

1 Samuel 25:14-17, 23-28, 32-35

The Point: Step in to keep a bad situation from getting worse.

The Bible Meets Life: My kids get along remarkably well. They share, take turns, and my ten-year-old reads to his little sister. There is still plenty of tattle-telling, though. When I hear the two-syllable whine, “Mo-om,” I typically respond with, “Just worry about yourself.” Do I really need to step in every time my six-year-old forgets to flush the toilet?

There are times, though, when the call for “Mom” takes on a sense of urgency—like when someone has put an entire roll of toilet paper in the commode, remembered to flush, and now the overflowing water is headed for the hallway carpet. Sometimes I need to step in to keep something bad from becoming a disaster. That’s part of being a mom.

That’s also part of being a family—looking out for each other and being willing to step in. As believers, we are part of the family of Christ. While there are times we should “just worry about yourself,” there are also times we need to step in and act with wisdom to keep something bad from becoming a disaster. One great example of that is a woman named Abigail.

Live It Out: Pray. If you know others who, like David, are headed down a road that is not good, pray. Intercede for the person. Use Philippians 1:9-11 as a part of your prayer. Praise. Start a list of ways you can pray for others. At the end of each week, look back over the list. Follow-up with those you have been praying for to see how God has answered these prayers. Praise God for His faithfulness in the lives of His people. Step in. As God gives you the opportunity, step into the lives of others who need “a course correction.” Ensure that any words you offer are grounded in God’s Word and are spoken with love and grace.
