God Speaks Through the Bible

Psalm 19:7-14

In Focus: God's Word is His primary means of speaking to us.

Look at our World: The internet is full of sites claiming to provide guidance for us and show us how to do what we want to do. Pick a subject, and someone is ready to give you directions on the matter. This is nothing new. Solomon said, "There is no end to the making of many books" (Eccl. 12:12). There is no end to the human desire to share our opinions with others. While advice from others can be somewhat helpful, the ultimate guidance we need comes from God, and the primary way He has revealed His will for us is through His Word.

Psalm 19 is a brilliant celebration of the reality that God speaks through His Word. C.S. Lewis said of this psalm, "I take this to be the greatest poem in the Psalter and to be the greatest lyrics in the world." The Old and New Testaments are both filled with God's revelation of Himself and His ways. We thrive in His teachings; they are life-giving for us.

Live It Out: View of God. Which Scripture verses has God used in your life to clearly demonstrate His will and His ways? Write these things down in a journal. What adjustments need to happen so you can join Him in His agenda? View of Self. What passage of Scripture has God used to get your attention about your heart and your life-style? Write these things down in a journal. How has that impacted the way you are now living? View of Others. Gather with a few fellow Christians. What common themes emerge from your study of God's Word? Is there a common application that can inform group action? If so, encourage one another in this journey.
