Annie Armstrong Week of Prayer

March 6-13

Prayer is the fuel for spiritually sustaining missionaries in places where the gospel is greatly needed, but often opposed.

The Pitfall of Hard Times (Genesis 41:28-32, 47-54)

The Point: Trust God to see you through any crisis.

The Bible Meets Life: Life is full of ups and downs. A star quarterback throws a game-winning touchdown, and his name is plastered all over the media. The following week, however, a bone-crushing injury brings his career to a shocking end. He goes from hero to zero within seven days. The opposite can also happen. A teenage girl living in poverty creates a YouTube video of her favorite song, and it goes viral, traveling all over the world. Within days, she's offered multiple opportunities to sing. Her meteoric success inspires young musicians everywhere.

Sudden reversals can happen to all of us, creating a test of our faith and character. For many of us, the arrival of the pandemic in 2020 caused just such a sudden reversal.

In today's study, we'll see Joseph travel from the prison to the palace in a single day. His years of suffering were finally repaid with personal reward. Pay attention to the way Joseph kept his eyes on God through the good times and the bad. While success can cause some to grow self-absorbed, Joseph modeled for us what it means to remain faithful no matter how high or low life takes us.

Live It Out: Make a list. Make a list of all the beautiful things happening in your life right now. Tape it to your bathroom mirror and begin every day with praise. Consider. Consider all the hard things you are going through right now. As you pray while you take a walk around your neighborhood, read them aloud and give them all to God. Memorize. Memorize Isaiah 26:3. It's an easy one! "You will keep the mind that is dependent on you in perfect peace, for it is trusting in you."
