God's Hand in Facing Opposition

2 Kings 6:8-12, 15-23

The Point: God is more powerful than those who oppose us.

The Bible Meets Life: When I was a teenager, I played on our church basketball team. Doyle was our center. Our arch-rival was a church across town. During the game, the center for the opposing team fouled out and blamed Doyle. When he walked to the bench, he pointed a finger at Doyle and said, "I'll be waiting for you in the parking lot." He was a lot bigger than Doyle and the threat had Doyle shook up. After the game ended, our team decided we weren't going to let Doyle face the other guy alone. So, as we left the gym and walked out to the parking lot, we were one big group huddled together with Doyle in the middle.

As believers, the opposition we face isn't always as apparent as in this story, but it is real, nonetheless. Every believer engages in some level of spiritual warfare against Satan and his schemes. Thankfully, we don't stand alone. God Himself stands with us whenever we face opposition.

Live It Out: Request. Pray and ask God to give you insight to the opposition you are facing. Nothing is beyond His knowledge. Seek His viewpoint and understanding. Recognize. Study what God's Word says about God's protection. Commit a passage to memory. Recognize God's constant presence with you. Reconcile. Speak words of forgiveness and compassion to those who oppose you. Be merciful to them by setting aside the desire to blame. Make reconciliation the goal.
