Indwelt by the Spirit (Romans 8:9-17)

The Point: The Holy Spirit's presence in our lives affirms our relationship with God.

The Bible Meets Life: When I was in college, I traveled one week-end from Oklahoma Baptist University back to my home in Texas. As I crossed the bridge leaving Oklahoma City, my car broke down. It was a pitch-black, rainy night, and this was well before cell phones. I walked back to a gas station to find a phone.

Although the bridge was not long, walking across it in the rain gave me a different impression. I was drenched. I could hardly see ten feet in front of me. As trucks rolled past, the wind whipped around me, and the bridge shook violently. It didn't take long for me to feel very alone and scared.

I started to sing as I walked. I sang every Christian song I knew from choruses to old hymns to camp songs. I was still soaked, and it was still dark, but the darkness of my heart faded. I felt as if God were walking with me.

We've all had times when we've felt alone, but as followers of Christ, we're never truly alone. We'll learn more about the presence of God in the Person of the Holy Spirit in this session.

Live It Out: Pray. Lean into the Spirit when you are lonely. In times when you feel alone and isolated from others, pray. Ask Him to help you sense His presence. Memorize. At times, you may struggle with doubts about God or about your relationship with Him. Memorize Romans 8:15-16 to remind yourself of the sure relationship you have in Christ. Surrender. When sin and temptation come knocking, remember that in Christ, you have put to death the deeds of sin. Confess any sins of which the Holy Spirit convicts you. Ask Him to help you put those to death. Be ruthless with those sins. Invite a Christian friend to serve as an accountability partner in areas of particular weakness.
