The Sign of His Grace

John 4:46-54

The Point: Jesus works on behalf of all who come to Him.

The Bible Meets Life: We've all seen people who are just too hard-headed or prideful to ask for help. How desperate do you have to get before asking for help? In our culture, we celebrate independence, especially when it comes to receiving help. But it's sad to see when someone maintains their independence to the point where they're willing to experience pain before asking for help. Pride then is on full display to maintain the perception of being independent. The situation may change, though, when someone else is involved, like a spouse, child, parent, or friend. In those moments, we're willing to get whatever help we can to see someone we love receive the help and care they need.

In this session, we'll read about a moment when someone was willing to break down his personal pride to receive help for his child. In this particular time period and culture, it would have been unexpected for this person to come to Jesus for help. Yet, the news had begun to spread about Jesus and His ability to help those in need, even to this official. It's good to know that Jesus stands to help us also!

Live It Out: Respond. If you haven't placed your faith in Christ, there's no better time than right now to begin your journey with Christ and let Him give you victory in your life! Talk to a pastor or group leader about next steps. Reflect. Write down how your faith is similar or different from the royal servant's faith and how it has experienced transformation. Identify steps you can take that will help you grow in your walk with God. Share. Take a moment to share with someone in your group or church how you have seen your faith grow in both answered and unanswered prayer. Ask that person about his or her own journey with the Lord.
